A NEW MONTHLY PERIODICAL, BY THE CONDUCTORS OF THE BROTHER JONATHAN.
The cheapest Magazine in Christendom.

THE DOLLAR MAGAZINE.
A Gazette of Current American and Foreign Literature, Music, the Arts Fashion and Novelty.
EDITED BY N. P. WILLIS & H. HASTINGS WELLS.

Every number is embellished with several beautiful AND SPIRITED ENGRAVINGS.

CURRENT LITERATURE.
In the contents of this Magazine, the aim of the editors is to select the choicest current periodical literature which falls from the European and American press—Tales, Poems, Novellities, Essays, Anecdotes, &c., a rich and pleasing variety—and Original Tales, written by some of the most celebrated American Pens, and illustrated with on Wood by the first American artists. In the matter of Engravings the Publishers are determined to continue, as they have now, the reputation of having offered the best ever presented to the public in a magazine. The most elaborate work on Wood, superior in finish to most of the ordinary metal plates, are presented in every number.

BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS

Every number also contains one or more Gems of NEW AND POPULAR MUSIC.
Its principal such as will reach our subscribers sooner through this Magazine than in any other mode. For this purpose a competent person in London has been employed to select and transmit to us the earliest copies of such new and fashionable Songs and other Music as appears in that city; and selections are also made of the most popular music from Operas presented in New-York.

PLATES OF THE FASHIONS
Reported and Engraved expressly for this Magazine, will be given four times in every volume.
THE TERM.
The Dollar Magazine is printed in a beautiful style, on one immense mammoth sheet, consisting of thirty-six large octavo pages, thereby reducing the postage to a single sheet. It is published on the first of every Month, neatly stitched and covered, and forwarded, to mail subscribers, for

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.
We do not hesitate to pronounce it the cheapest, as we are determined it shall be the best, Magazine ever offered to American readers—and its circulation already exceeds that of any other magazine in the Union.

POST-MASTERS, (or others,) who will send us a Five Dollar Bill free of postage, shall receive a Sixth copy gratis, and if the money so sent is current in New-York or Boston, a Seventh copy will be added—or, Four copies for Three Dollars. The extra copies will be sent as the P. M. may direct. Letters should either be franked by the P. M. or post paid, (otherwise they are not taken from the office,) and be addressed to WILSON & COMPANY
Publisher, 162 Nassau street, New-York.

A NEW VOLUME.
IN SPLENDID STYLE.
JULY, 1841.
GRAHAM'S LADIES' AND GENTLEMEN'S MAGAZINE.

The Great increase in the subscription list of this highly popular Magazine (the edition having more than doubled in less than six months) induces the proprietor, to commence a new volume, with the July number. It will be issued in the most attractive style, with the first of a new series, of RICH ORIGINAL ENGRAVINGS.

got up in a manner, that shall surpass any used, in any other American Magazine. In addition to the fact, that we employ the talent of the very best American artists, in the engraving of the plates for this work, it must be remembered, that most of the subjects selected, are Original American Pictures, which have never before engraved, and are consequently, the newest that can be brought before the public.

HIGHLY COLORED FASHION.
It must be remembered, that the Fashion plates of this Magazine, are the best in coloring and design that can be found in any work published, in this country or in Europe. They are engraved and colored for this Magazine, by the best artists that the country can produce, and are drawn, always, from the latest designs from Paris and London, and consequently may always be relied upon as the prevailing fashions of the United States, for the month in which they are issued. We pay more for coloring than any other publication, and always have the best.

THE CONTRIBUTORS.
In addition, to the unusual fine array of original contributors, which the Magazine has thus far boasted, arrangements have been made with a number more, of the best writers of the day, so that spice and variety may be looked for in the literary department of the new volume.

Sports and Pastimes.
This interesting feature of the Magazine shall still, be preserved as important to young sportsmen and in fact to all, young or old, who delight in the sports of the rod and gun. Articles in this department shall be from acknowledged pens, and of the very best authority.

NEW TYPE AND PAPER.
The volume will be opened with a new and beautiful type, cast expressly for the work, the mechanical execution shall be of surpassing neatness, and the printing shall be done upon the finest white paper.

NEW AND POPULAR MUSIC.
The choicest pieces of new and popular music for the Piano forte and Guitar shall be selected for its pages, and two or more pages shall appear regularly each month. In this way subscribers in remote country, can always have the latest music at low rates, almost as soon as it is published.

Terms Cash.
The terms are $3 for a single subscription, and in no case will the price be abated, or two copies for $5 free of postage and discount, ALWAYS IN ADVANCE. No subscriber received in any case without the money. This rule is imperative and will not be departed from.

Address post-paid, GEORGE R. GRAHAM,
S. W. Corner 3d and Chestnut sts. Phila.

NEW DOLLAR PUBLICATION BY THE CONDUCTORS OF BROTHER JONATHAN.
JONATHAN'S MISCELLANY.
Issued weekly by Wilson & Co. 162 Nassau street, New York.

The first number will be issued on the Tuesday previous to the 4th of July.

The publishers of the Brother Jonathan, encouraged by the abundant and unprecedented success which has crowned their recent efforts in the publication of the "Dollar Magazine," have decided upon the publication of a Weekly sheet, expressly for the country, in a convenient form for preservation, under the title of "Jonathan's Miscellany." The Miscellany will be issued every Tuesday morning, in a suitable form for binding, and will contain eight large quarto pages, printed with a beautiful and clear type on a sheet of twenty-eight by thirty-eight inches. Its columns will be made up principally of such matter as appears in the Brother Jonathan in a fit form to bind, the opportunity is now afforded to do so by subscribing to the two publications, Jonathan's Miscellany, and the Dollar Magazine.

SERIAL WORKS.—The plan of the Dollar Magazine excludes the serial works which are published in the Brother Jonathan. The Miscellany will contain such new works from the pen of "Boz" "Harry Lorrequer," and others, as may hereafter be commenced in the columns of the Brother Jonathan. Some one continued article will, however, always be found in the Miscellany, which has not been previously published in the Brother Jonathan or any other periodical in this country.

Jonathan's Miscellany will also embrace the cream of the news, the latest and most important having the preference. It will be published on Tuesday's, and will thus anticipate the Saturday papers of the same week several days. In this circumstance the publishers anticipate the creation of a large mail demand for the Miscellany, among readers who are at present provided with one or more of the Weekly Sheets which are almost universally issued on Saturdays.

In cheapness and excellence the Miscellany will challenge comparison with any other periodical in the world.

TERMS.
The first number of Jonathan's Miscellany will be issued on Tuesday, June 20th, and forwarded to subscribers by mail at the following cheap rates: For a Single Copy, one year One Dollar & Fifty Cents.

FIVE COPIES, one year, for FIVE DOLLARS, in money current in the State of New York or in Boston.

For the Dollar Magazine, (monthly,) and Jonathan's Miscellany, (weekly,) one year, to one address, TWO DOLLARS.

Letters must always come to us free of postage—otherwise they are never taken from the Post Office. Postmasters are authorized by law to frank letters containing subscription money, and will generally do so if applied to.

Orders must in all cases be accompanied by the cash. Single copies will always be on sale, at all the News offices in the United States, at six cents. Letters should be addressed to WILSON & COMPANY, Publishers, 162 Nassau Street, New York.

Office of Brother Jonathan, New York, June 4th, 1841.

TO THE PUBLIC.
I have seen in the Holly Springs Gazette, that the Holly Spring Lodge No. 35, have published me to the world for unmasonic conduct. I deem it necessary to make known the facts which caused my expulsion from the Lodge. Some time since, I preferred charges against E. H. Whitfield, a member; the lodge acted on the case, and he was acquitted; at the same time, he preferred charges against me, it became necessary, as is usual in such cases, for the accused to retire in order for the lodge to act upon the case, and contrary to a settled principle, I was not invited back. I was acquitted of the charges, but understood the lodge closed in confusion, and the master of the lodge applied for a "demit." Several of the members, together with myself, came to the solemn determination never to enter the lodge again—upon receiving such treatment as I have from the said lodge, I feel it a duty, without wishing to disparage the ancient order of Free and Accepted Masonry, to caution all honorable men from laying any thing whatever to do with it.
JOEL M. SLEDGE.
Holly Springs, Oct. 5 1841.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given, that on the 23d day of November, 1841, the Probate court of Marshall county, State of Mississippi, granted letters testamentary to the undersigned as executor of the last will and testament of James D. Marr, dec'd, and he was then by said court duly qualified as such executor. All persons having claims against the estate of said James D. Marr, are hereby required to exhibit the same to the undersigned within the time limited by law, or the same will be barred.
